

TOUR GHANA, WEST AFRICA

September 6-20, 2004

Cross Cultural Studies and Tours

&

Jah Kente International, Inc.

Invite you to tour Ghana this summer
with Curator Rufus T. Stevenson, Executive Vice President,
JAH KENTE INTERNATIONAL And CEO, THE TIEFING COLLECTION

Highlights:

- Historic Tour of City of Accra (Capital City)
- Cape Coast (site of historic slave castles and dungeons)
- Kakum Reserve (one of only two parks like it in the world)
- Kumasi –Home of the great Ashanti people of Ghana and their Beautiful and rich culture
- Bonwire (kente cloth-making)
- Palace and Museum where the Ashanti King (Asantehene) lives and Work, and home of the great Ashanti stool.
- Home, Museum and resting place of the great Pan-Africanist, W.E.B. DuBois
- Aburi Botanical Gardens and Woodcarving villages
- Beautiful and scenic Akosombo to see the largest man-made lake in the world.

Depart: Monday, September 6, 2004

Return: Monday, September 20, 2004

Round trip cost: $1,700.00 Reservation Fee: $425.00 Due: May 1, 2004

CONTACT: Rufus T. Stevenson at: 202-829-5922; Fax: 202-829-9298;
E-mail: tiefingcol@aol.com, Websites: www.thetiefingcollection.com/
jahkenteintel/
www.ccstghana.com